

I highly encourage the FCC to continue to uphold State's laws concerning telemarketing and "no-call" lists. In the past companies have refused to accept my repeated "no thank you" to their product. I am grateful that my state government in Wisconsin supports me and has made it illegal for telemarketers to trespass on my valuable time and privacy.